All: Unfortunately, we are once again approaching the end of a tolling period, coming up April 30, one week from today. I suggest one more (and final) extension to June 30. If this is acceptable to all parties, please confirm asap.

Bob: I believe you produced the last working version of the tolling agreement extension. Could you circulate a revision with a single change to reflect June 30 as the end of the tolling period?

Thanks.

Sarah,

UPRR is fine with extending the date. There are a couple of typos shown in redline on the attached document. Do you want to make the corrections and then send a final version to all for signatures? Alternatively, we could do it here. Thanks.

Bob
